

INTEGRATED QUALITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Recognizing our responsibilities in the design and manufacturing of chemical specialties for tanning industries, fine chemicals, textile, surfactants, plastics, lubricants, water treatment and surface treatment, we, CROMOGENIA UNITS S.A. undertake the commitment to develop our activities using practices favouring the highest quality level of our products, and a higher environmental protection.

To achieve this target CROMOGENIA-UNITS. S.A. implements and keeps up to date an integrated quality and environmental management system involving any company's operation as well as all his staff.

CROMOGENIA-UNITS, S.A. management is committed:

To directly engage with the management and with the continuous improvement of the quality and the environmental activities, by setting-up and tracing targets, by evaluating the achievements and by the integrated management quality system & environment enhancement.

- To guarantee any specification fulfilment and compliance as well as any legal requirements, agreed requirement or any other party in question applying to his activities, services and products manufactured.
- To review and periodically update the policy and the integrated quality and environment management system as to reflect any changes in the activities.
- To progressively promote his suppliers to adopt environmental and quality standards, especially in relation to environmentally friendly products purchases.
- To provide a fully complying guarantee fulfilling any needs and expectations the customers or any other party in question expect, concerning his efficiency, as well as providing environmental information of his products.
- To minimize the environmental impact of his activities through the control of the foremost environmental aspects such as the prevention of pollution and the efficient waste management.
- To develop a continuous education of his staff, encouraging their participation in the quality and environmental management programme.
- To ensure that this integrated management policy is divulgated, known and fulfilled at any level inside the organization.

CROMOGENIA-UNITS, S.A will assign all the human resources and materials needed for the achievement of his foreseen objectives.

A. Cabestany
General Manager

Revised January 2018 in Barcelona